The Declaration and Gettysburg

Abraham Lincoln used our Declaration of Independence to fight the Civil War. "Dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal." is part of what he said on that horrible battlefield.

Without those words in the Declaration and the ability to amend the US Constitution, the Liberty we all share today would not be possible.

I also find relevance in the way Lincoln ended his address that November day in 1863 and have committed it to memory.

"This nation, under God shall have a new birth of freedom--- and that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

Lincoln wasted no words in his short, 2 minute speech.

"A new birth of freedom" They felt it, they needed it 150 years ago during the Civil War. Every generation needs "a new birth of freedom." Perhaps that's what we are feeling today as Americans work to encourage our leaders to return to Constitutional values.

A new birth of Freedom is what the Founders lived, Lincoln felt, and America needs today.
